

Parker Hannifin overview

- Leading worldwide diversified manufacturer of motion and control technologies and systems serving virtually every significant manufacturing, transportation and processing industry
- More than 60 divisions with core technologies including hydraulics, pneumatics, electro-mechanical, filtration, fluid and gas handling, process control, engineered materials and climate control
- Founded in Cleveland, Ohio in 1917
- Previous acquisitions total $9.7 billion in investment, including Clarcor, Lord and Exotic Metals
- Fiscal Year 2022 at-a-glance:
 - More than 55,000 global team members
 - 305 manufacturing facilities in 45 countries
 - $15.86 billion in sales

Parker Aerospace overview

- Global leader in the research, design, integration, manufacture, certification, and lifetime service of flight control actuation, hydraulic, fuel and inerting, fluid conveyance, ducting, exhaust air management, thermal management, lubrication, and pneumatic systems and components for aerospace and other high-technology markets
- Divisions: Commercial Flight Controls Division, Customer Support Operations, Exotic Metals Forming Division, Fluid Systems Division, Gas Turbine Fuel Systems Division, Hydraulic Systems Division, Military Flight Controls Division, Stratoflex Products Division
- Fiscal Year 2022 at-a-glance:
 - 5,300+ global team members
 - 24 manufacturing facilities globally
 - $2.52 billion in annual sales
 - Four joint ventures

Meggitt overview

- Leading global provider of proprietary airframes and engine products for the aerospace, defense and select energy markets
- Divisions: Airframe Systems, Engine Systems, Energy & Equipment, Services & Support
- Founded in the UK in 1947
- 9,000+ global team members
- 40 manufacturing facilities around the world
- €1.49 billion in revenue in fiscal 2021, ended December 31, 2021